

May 27 = For Girls club this month West Heights Community School had Inez Jasper, well renowned Sto:lo mainstream singer talk to the girls and sign picture autographs. What an incredible inspiration, she encouraged the girls to finish school and let them know they can do anything. Inez is an award winning singer who also has her degree in nursing, and was a nurse for 7 years before she started her professional career in music.

